VOL. VII. NO. 211. CHICAGO, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1901. PRICE 5 CENTS

ODNOR A STAKE WINNER.

The Harlem attractions for Labor Day were of a high order the program of seven races drawing out a crowd that numbered almost twelve thousand persons, some estimates making it greater. The day was an ideal racing one and the speedway was lightning fast, good time being made in all the races. The star event of the day was the Prairie State Stakes, a dash of one and one-eighth miles for three-year-olds and upward with $1,000 added. The adjusting of the weights made the guessing of the winner a very difficult matter, although the talent hit upon Malay as having the best chances as has been the rule lately in stake races the winner turned up in an outsider. Odnor going to the front at flag dip and remaining there despite the brave effort of Strangest, another outsider, in the last fifty yards. To a splendid start Odnor at once assumed command, leading at the quarter by a length with the others close up, although Malay was badly pocketed at this early stage of proceedings against the inside rail. Down the back stretch Odnor increased his advantage to two lengths while there was little or no change in the positions of the others. The field closed gradually on the leader however, so that by the time he had straightened for home he was only one length in the lead of Leo Newell on which Star Chamber was lapped. Malay swung wide when turning for home, as did also Strangest, and the two moved up fast when nearing the last eighth. The quintet were in a merry cluster just after passing beyond the last eighth post and it appeared like anybody's race, but Odnor still had a slight advantage and, under a determined ride, he held it to the end, standing off Strangest's bold bid in the closing strides and beating him to the wire by a head, while Strangest finished a length in front of Star Chamber for second place. Star Chamber, on the inside rail, seemed to have a good chance when a furlong out, but he tired badly in the last fifty yards. Leo Newell had enough after a mile had been run; Malay was hemmed in between Strangest and Leo Newell in the last eighth, preventing Sullivan from using his whip, but it hardly made any difference in the result. The finish was an intensely exciting one and was met with enthusiastic cheers from the serried mass of people in the grand stand.

All scratched out of the September steeplechase but Donation and Flaccus. The race was a fairly interesting affair up to the last jump, where Flaccus went down. Lloyd, his rider, held on to him long enough to prevent his running away; then remounted and rode him out for second money.

Miss Bennett, favored, with a running start, fairly smothered her field with speed in the sixth race, a dash of six furlongs, and made every post a winning one. She won easily by a length from Henry of Trastamare, he beating Gonfalon two for second place. Henry of Trastamare closed up strongly in the last eighth, but had no chance to beat the winner. Gonfalon made up much ground in the last half, but tired in the last sixteenth. Lady Aintree showed early speed.

The day's opener, a dash of six furlongs, was taken in a canter by Master Mariner, which got off in front and stayed there to the end, winning by three lengths. Barco finished second a length in front of Alee. The last named ran a surprisingly good race. King Dellis finished strongly in the last eighth and would have been third in another stride. Goal Runner was never a factor at any part of the dash. Andes ran as if short and the race should do him good. Crinkle showed quite a turn of speed for a half mile.

Pat Dunne's recent purchase Hargis took the two-year-old race, a scramble of five furlongs by the closest of margins. Jack Rattlin led by a good margin up to the final eighth where he began to sprawl. In here Hargis and Prona came up fast and in a spirited tilt the former gained the verdict by a head, while Prona beat Jack Rattlin a neck for second place. I. Samelson was fourth three and one half lengths back and ran far below expectations. Evening Star showed well for four and a half furlongs and then fell away beaten and she probably shows to best advantage in soft going. Ishtar was never a sharp contender at any part of the race.

Federal showed himself to be a horse of fair class by taking Robert Waddell into camp in the fifth race, a dash of one mile. The Pride, luxurious of speed, showed the way up to the last eighth where he tired, giving way to Federal. The latter finished resolutely and was able to stall off the Derby winner's bold bid in the closing strides, winning by a neck, while Robert Waddell beat The Pride two lengths for second place. Robert Waddell ran in improved form over his showing in the Northern Stakes and the race yesterday has probably put him on keen edge. He should be a hard horse to beat from now on. Vulcan showed prominently for a quarter only and then gradually fell away. He has probably trained off.

Espionage has been schooled to the barrier so thoroughly of late that she was able to break with her field yesterday in the last race, a dash of one mile and one hundred yards. Starter Dick Dwyer unfortunately gave her a running start of two lengths when he sent the field away and she easily remained in front to the end, winning by a length and a half from Searcher, he beating Synia six for second place. Searcher ran a good race, but was unable to overcome the big advantage gained by the winner at the start. Gawaine's race was not up to his best form and should be thrown out in future calculations. The same may be said of Flying Torpedo, who ran even a much worse race than Gawaine. The race was run three-fifths of a second faster than the previous track record for the distance.

THE DELMAR SUIT.

The application of the Attorney General of Missouri for an injunction to restrain racing at the Delmar track will be decided today. The case is one fraught with much interest to all turfmen. Of the proceedings before Judge Zachritz Friday, Saturday's Republic said:

"The Delmar race track will not be closed before next Tuesday, if at all. Judge Zachritz yesterday continued until that time the injunction proceedings brought by Attorney General Crow to have bookmaking and pool-selling restrained at the track. He announced that he will give his decision Tuesday.

"The Delmar Jockey Club and the other defendants filed a demurrer yesterday, and the matter was argued by the attorneys on both sides. Attorneys Harvey, Rowe and Attorney General Crow spoke in opposition to the demurrer, and Attorney John H. Overall and Attorney H. S. Priest for the jockey club and race track men.

"The demurrer recites:

"That the court has no jurisdiction of the defendants or of the subject matter of the action, it not appearing from the petition that the offenses complained of occurred or will occur within the city of St. Louis.

"That the plaintiff has no legal capacity to sue.

"That there is a defect of parties plaintiff.

Winner—B. g. by Rayon d'Or—Fen Follet.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Fulminate improved greatly over his last race but was lucky to win over Sir Hubert and The Bachelor, both of which lay completely out of the race for the first two miles which were run at a very slow pace. The winner stole a long and winning lead while the jockeys on the probably best horses were taking a nap. Sir Hubert closed with a tremendous rush when too late. The Bachelor is a stayer and requires a strong pace. Bacchanal was a contender nearly throughout. The others were outclassed over the long course.
Scratched—27668 Jim Megibben, 148.
Overweights—Isen, 2 pounds; Mars Chan, 1.
Fulminate, show, 8 to 5. Sir Hubert, show, 1 to 2. The Bachelor, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. h. by Kilwarlin—Oricle.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Ogden was outrun to the stretch but gradually caught and wore down Cameron's lead and only beat him in the last stride in a fierce drive. Cameron appeared to be almost a certain winner throughout and displayed brilliant speed on a track probably unsuited to his action. Bellario is rounding to and finished very strongly after being within striking distance throughout. He ran an impressive race, probably partly due to the soft going. Unmasked was under a pall to the stretch, but quit in the final strides. Otis, with the worst of the weights, ran well to the stretch, but has probably gone back at that.
Scratched—27713 Sly, 122; (27894) Alard Schock, 118; 27772 Maltster, 118; 26753 Belle of Troy, 117; 27140 Hops, 110; 27589 Golden Cottage, 110.

Winner—Ch. c. by Lamplighter—Hannarinda.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Arsenal outran his field from start to finish in the most impressive fashion and must be a good class colt. He was challenged in the stretch by Masterman and drew away gamely. Masterman, favored by the soft going, was an easy second best. King Hanover was outpaced and outtraced by the first two at all stages and evidently had not recovered from Saturday's hard race. He will certainly reverse today's running later on. Homestead showed a fine burst of speed and hung on well to the end. He has been very highly tried and is a fair horse, but looks big and not fit. The other never cut any figure in the race.
Scratched—27774 Andalusian, 115; Blackstock, 115; 26850 Pearl Finder, 112.

Winner—B. c. by Albert—Bonnie Ola.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start perfect. Won driving; second the same. Herbert was best and ran a remarkable race under adverse conditions, except as to the state of the going, which especially favored him. He lost a length at the start before getting into his stride, ran wide around the entire field on the first turn and tried to bear out on the stretch turn, and yet when seemingly beaten suddenly came again with a wonderful burst of speed. Terminus suffered through the winner's roguish tactics on the turn, but for which he would probably have won. Trigger finished very strongly and ran like a stayer. Baron Pepper was handicapped in the going, but closed with a tremendous rush and would probably have won on a good track. Gold Heels was badly interfered with at different points in the race and ran a great race at the weights and will improve. Water Cure was at a great disadvantage on the soft track, which was dry and wet in spots. He is very good and was closing strongly at the end. The going was also against Imp. Toddy got off badly. Ten Candles was short, but showed grand speed early.
Scratched—27583 Advance Guard, 115; 27992 Antolight, 90.
Overweights—Terminus, 4 pounds; Baron Pepper, 3.

THE DELMAR SUIT.

"That there is a defect of the parties defendant."

"That several causes of action have been improperly united."

"That the petition does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action."

"That there is no equity in the bill."

"That the questions attempted to be raised by the petition are legal questions in dispute that should be determined upon a hearing."

"Mr. Overall spoke in favor of the demurrer. He was answered by Attorney Harvey, followed by Mr. Rowe, and then the Attorney-General spoke."

"The point of the arguments was based on the allegation that the licenses under which the bookmakers are operating were not properly issued. The Attorney-General claimed the licenses under which the bookmakers are operating were surreptitiously obtained and that rendered them void. He also claimed that the public good demand that the licenses be suppressed. He cited several decisions in support of his position."

"Mr. Priest made the closing argument. He said he had tried and failed to find consistency in the arguments which had been advanced. He referred to the damage that would be done to the defendants if a temporary injunction was granted, and that it should result that they were in the right. The time would have passed, he said, when the licenses could be used and the defendants would be out their money. The law, he said, does not contemplate the granting of a temporary injunction in a case where the damage done would be irreparable in the event that the person enjoined was in the right."

"He said the defendants had paid about $4,000 as fees for the licenses."

"He was interrupted by Attorney Rowe, who said the petition denied that the money was paid into the Treasury of the State."

"Mr. Priest said the allegation of the petition was a conclusion. The money had been paid, he said, and it would require a special act of the Legislature to refund the money to the defendants."

"He said the licenses could not be revoked unless a tender of the money was made and the money paid into court, and that the State Auditor cannot do."

"Mr. Rowe again interrupted him, and said that an offer to return the money had been made."

"Mr. Priest said the fact the State Auditor made the offer did not make any difference, because he could not return the money. The State Treasurer, he said, is the only person who can return the money."

"Behind all that, he said, there is a motive, which dare not be revealed in the record. The Court, he said, hears it in the air."

"He said the State Auditor exercised his authority when he signed blank licenses and gave them to his agent or deputy, and he cannot go behind that."

"He said the allegation that the licenses were fraudulently obtained was insufficient, because it did not state wherein the alleged fraud existed. If the licenses are void, he said, those using them can be tried under the breeders' bill, and fined."

"Judge Zachritz told the attorneys to furnish him with a list of the decisions to which they had referred, and that he would lay the matter over until 10 a. m. next Tuesday."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. J. B., Chicago. An apprentice rider is one who has never ridden a winner and who has taken out a license as an apprentice, being under age and bound to owners or trainers for a term of not less than three years by a written instrument. Sullivan has been riding as a full fledged jockey for several years. Apprentice allowances were not made in the west prior to this year.

A. E. Maloney & Co., Shreveport, La. O'Connor is accounted to be about as skillful as any jockey now riding in this country.

A Subscriber. A. does not win his bet on Whiskey King. In handbook betting he must stand by his wager as it was made.

At Sheephead Bay yesterday Nasturtium is reported to have worked a phenomenal seven furlongs, defeating his stable companion, Goldsmith, the time and fractions being 24%, 47, 1:00%, 1:12%, 1:25%.

Y. Z.: Yankee ran in Madden's name, but Mr. Whitney owns a half interest in him. Coupling is not enforced as strictly in the east as it is in the west, and your wager follows eastern betting rules, under which Yankee was not held to be in Whitney's entry.

Winner—Br. f. by Sain—Gratitude.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Schwalbe was lucky and easily beat, ran a speedy and game race and was going away at the end. Eddie Busch weakened in the final drive. O'Hagen wants a heavy track and in real mud can possibly beat this kind. He is in good form and showed plenty of speed. Montana Pioneer hung on well and evidently liked the track. Lady Radnor was going well in the stretch. Ascension also finished strongly after appearing to be far out of it.

Scratched—27934 Grail, 109; 28890 Bridge, 102.

Went to post at 5:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Ogden came back very fit and in first-class shape won decisively at the end after some hustling to get up. He nailed Monarka at the furlong post. The latter had to run some to dispose of Kinnickinnick and both ran high-class races.

Winner—B. g. by Clarendon—Arena.

Went to post at 2:29. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. It was a false run race. Clarena won by virtue of Dale's assurance that Fugurtha could not be beaten. Lindsay kept at Clarena while Dale seemingly forgot that he was in a race. When he saw he was in danger he lost his wits, snatched Fugurtha across the track and let him sprawl badly. He was easily best. Clarena ran in improved form. Wy Ap Per ran to the mark.

Overweights—Fugurtha, 2 pounds; Called Back, 2.

Clarena, show, 2 to 5. Wy Ap Per, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Poteen—Laura Gie.

Went to post at 2:58. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily, but all out; second and third driving. Charles E. Billingsley was lucky and well ridden, but was probably only fourth best. Warren Point should have won as it was run, but had a weak finisher on him. Teucer ran his race. Tempse was next best to Hengist but was pulled up at the start and poorly handled. Hengist was probably best, but Powell jerked him up at the start and ran him into exhaustion in the first half, then jammed him into a pocket and quit riding.

Scratched—27949 Asoka, 102.

Overweights—Charles E. Billingsley, 3 pounds; Teucer, 3; Hengist, 2; Capitolia, 3.

Winner—B. c. by St. Saviour—Josie W.

Went to post at 3:28. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Dale can get much more out of Sambo than any other jockey who has ridden him here. He is a heavy-headed colt and needs a strong rider. He came very strong in the stretch and won going away. Talpa ran a good race but seemed to be a bit short. Harry Shaffer did his best but the early fast pace was too much for him. W. L. George maintained his speed longer than he usually does and is much improved. Lynch is not up to the distance. Lillian M. is not in her best form. Maria Elena probably needs a few races to fit her.

Sambo, show, 3 to 5. Talpa, show, 1 to 2. Harry Shaffer, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f. by Prime Minister—Octa Reed.

Went to post at 3:58. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily after a hard drive; second driving. Lady Curzon was in barplates and lame, yet ran well and finishing fast, won easily enough at the end. H. S. Tobacco did not show his usual speed at any part of the race and ran below his best form. Grandma II. finished strongly and did her best. Kiss Quick was poorly ridden. Enos bungled Staff at the three-eighths post when she was running a comfortable third. Lady Curzon, show, 7 to 10. H. S. Tobacco, show, out. Grandma II., show, evens. Kiss Quick, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Margrave—Monopoly.

Went to post at 4:34. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Monograph, away badly, was taken around outside of his field at the start. He raced past the others to third place and was then taken up and rated while Middlesome and Miss Mae Day were fighting it out in front. When at the three eighths the leaders weakened and Monograph ran away with it and was a very fresh horse at the end. It was a great race for him, the mile being better than 1:40 for Monograph. Peaceful had no mishaps, was well ridden and did his best. Ida Ledford ran a good race and finished very strongly. Cyrano's legs are very sore, but he ran a good race. Prosper La Gai, under a weak ride, ran a stout, unaided race. Middlesome and Miss Mae Day ran their races in front. Chappaqua showed but scant speed at any part of it. Scratched—(27628) Ethel Wheat, 106; 27973 Lord Neville, 101; 27977 Kazan, 91; 27977 Rochester, 90.

Revoke, under an inferior ride, ran a capital race. Prima II. showed early speed, but tired and quit in the stretch. Hardly about ran her race. Belle Simpson was outrun throughout.

Winner—Ch. g. by Wadsworth—Emily S.

Went to post at 5:37. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Ignis is very good just now. He showed fine speed, was well ridden and given an especially strong finish. Satin Coat was well handled at every part of the race, though he might have been driven sooner and harder. He ran a fine race and about to his best form. Tickful was made too much use of and did well to run third. Burnett's Walkaway ran well and had no mishaps. Tickful raced Nekarnis into exhaustion. Empyreal was given a dull ride and can do better.

Winner—Ch. g. by Mariner—Marinette.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; next three driving. Master Mariner, off with a running start, easily maintained the lead to the end and ran a high-class race. Ranco showed improvement and was the best of the others. Alee was tiring at the end and would have lost third place to King Dellis in another stride. Goal Runner could never get up at any part of the race and ran below his true form. Andes was possibly short and the race should about put him on keen edge. Crinkle showed early speed. Emma R. as usual showed plenty of speed, but could not maintain it far enough.
Scratched—(27970) Maggie Davis, 107; 27923 Sam Lazarus Eq., 101; 27401 Miss Zara, 93.
Overweights—King Dellis, 1½ pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hanover—Extra.
Went to post at 2:45. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Hargis came with a well-timed rush at the end and was going away when passing under the wire. Fronta ran a good game race but faltered slightly in the closing strides. Jack Rattin was tiring fast in the last sixteenth. His best race is at four and a half furlongs. I. Samelson ran below expectations. He does not appear to relish weight. Evening Star quit badly the last eighth. She has possibly gone back somewhat. Ishtar showed but little speed at any part of the race.
Scratched—(27915) Landseer, 107; 25489 John A. Clarke, 103; (27947) Mabel Winn, 107; 27967 Corigan, 107; Outlet, 99; 27947 Lady Like, 99; 27830 Hat Mitchell, 99.
Hargis, show, 2 to 1. Fronta, show, 7 to 10. Jack Rattin, show, evens. Evening Star, show, 3 to 5.

28000 THIRD RACE—Full Course. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap. The September Steeplechase. $800 added; $200 to second; $100 to third. Value to winner, $1,080.

Winner—Ch. g. by Sir Dixon—Umbria.
Went to post at 3:05. Off at the first break. Start good. Won in a canter. Donation ran well within himself over the long route and fenced cleanly throughout. Lloyd tried to take the last jump on a run with Flaccus, but the horse stumbled and fell. The jockey held on long enough to stop him, and remounting rode him out for second money. Flaccus pulled up slightly lame.
Scratched—26385 Walter Cleary, 148; 27968 Chancery, 128; (27553) Filon d'Or, 168.
Time, 5:04½.
Winner—Ch. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Fertile.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; next three the same. Odnor ran the best race of his career. Strangest appeared like he had him in the closing strides, but he showed great gameness and would not be denied. Strangest finished stoutly, but the winner was just a trifle too good for him. Star Chamber seemed to have a chance on the inside rail in the last eighth, but hung a trifle in the last fifty yards. Leo Newell tired in the last sixteenth. Malay was wedged in between Strangest and Leo Newell in the last eighth and Sullivan could not use his whip. It hardly made any difference in the result at that.
Odnor, show, 1 to 2. Strangest, show, evens. Star Chamber, show, 1 to 2. Leo Newell, show, 1 to 3. Malay, show, 1 to 4.

Went to post at 4:10. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Federal went into the lead when entering the final quarter and finished fast and strongly standing off Robert Waddell's strong bid in the closing strides. The latter came with a rush in the last eighth but was not quite good enough to beat the winner. The Pride had enough when a furlong out. Vulcain gradually fell away after the first quarter had been run and has possibly staled.
Overweights—The Pride, 3 pounds; Vulcain, 2½.
Federal, show, out. Robert Waddell, show, 7 to 10. The Pride, show, 3 to 5. Vulcain, show out.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 8 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Espionage was let off with a flying start and the result was never afterward in doubt. Searcher ran a good, game race, but the early advantage Espionage had received was too much for him to overcome and he had to be content with second place. Synia ran well for a half mile and then gradually fell away. Gawaine had enough after running the first quarter. He can do much better and the race should be thrown out in future calculations. The field was well strung out after the first quarter had been run. The race was a very fast one, three-fifths of a second having been chipped off the track record.

Went to post at 2:38. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. See, on Plead, was content to rate along until well in the stretch, where she came away and won with plenty in reserve. Countess Clara showed the most early speed and reared Siren Song into submission in the first three-quarters. She tired somewhat in the last furlong, but was easily second best. Muskalonge did the best he could and had no mishaps. Little Tim met with sharp interference at the three furlongs post, but it cut no figure in the result, as he was beaten at the time.

She won a lucky race as Stella Perkins was by far the best and should have won but for bad handling, her rider doing everything in the last furlong but fall off.
